

POL 385, Law and Society, Fall 2002
Brett Marston

Write a well-argued, 3-5 page paper on the following topic:

What is the difference between being “before the law” and being “against the law” according to Ewick and Silbey? What evidence do they use to make their case? Do you find their arguments persuasive?

Your paper is due by class on October 2nd. Please provide me with an electronic version of the paper, either by e-mail or on a floppy disk, zip disk, or CD. I prefer MS-Word; you may also save the paper as a PDF file, Rich Text File, or plain Text file. Please contact me if you have any difficulties.
